

Learning and Community Engagement Officer

Wesley's Chapel, The Museum of Methodism & John Wesley's House

Salary: £28,000 - £30,000 per annum depending on experience full time, 5 days per week (35 hrs). (Part-time 3 days per week, 21 hours, pay pro rata, considered).

Permanent position

In this key role, you will be responsible for the delivery of a vibrant learning and (inter)national outreach programme for the Museum of Methodism and John Wesley's House. You will also direct the museum's social media and oversee its website. You will work in close consultation with the museum curator, Chapel staff and volunteers.

You have the skills to produce and deliver creative learning and outreach activities for both formal and informal learners, in-person and online. You will enjoy generating interesting social media content and networking and have an ability to work with a wide variety of users of all ages. You will also have experience in sourcing museum learning grants and manage application processes.

The Learning and Community Engagement Officer will be required to work occasional Saturdays, or out of Mon-Fri working hours, delivering programmed events.

If you feel you have the skills and experience to join our team, please contact Ms Tracey Smith, Buildings Manager at manager@wesleyschapel.org.uk or telephone 020 7 253 2262 for further information and an application pack. Application closing date Fri 22nd Dec 2023 at 10am; interviews will take place mid-January 2024.
